Excerpts from the Declaration of Independence

When in the Course
of human events,
it becomes necessary
for one people
to dissolve the political bands which have
connected them with another,
and to assume
among the powers
of the earth,
the separate and equal station
to which the Laws of Nature
and of Nature's God
entitle them,
a decent respect
to the opinions
of mankind
requires that they should declare the causes which impel them
to the separation.
